

2013-2014 Adobe Bluffs Yearbook Special Sponsors

Once again, we are offering parents, relatives, and friends the opportunity to support the Adobe Bluffs yearbook and the kids with special sponsorships. We will continue the tradition of the very popular love lines and page sponsors, which are personalized messages printed directly in all books. Please contact us if you have another sponsorship idea. 5th grade parents, we are hoping to offer "5th grade ads" this year, so keep an eye out for more info if you are interested.

Please select one or more of the following categories, complete this form, and return it and your payment to your child's classroom. Important: Please include your email address in case we have questions about your order.
